

NAWBO REGIONAL LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

Program Facilitator

MARILYN BUSHEY
CEO and Chief Learning Officer
Power Performance and Communication, Inc.

Marilyn Bushey is an inspirational coach and facilitator who thrives on bringing out the best in people, teams and organizations. Over the last 25 years, Marilyn has coached over 2000 leaders in executive presence, leadership skills, and business development skills. She also leads Fortune 100 companies, fast growth small businesses and non-profits in result-driven strategic planning sessions, quarterly management retreats, on-boarding and sales boot camps, and team building events. Marilyn has been praised for her ability to “combine practical experience with intellectual insight” and for “always inspiring innovation and creativity in her clients. “

Marilyn’s client companies include Frito-Lay, PepsiCo, Citigroup, Texas Instruments, KPMG, the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center, EBI (Egyptian Banking Institute), Merrill Lynch, Yahoo, the City of Irving, and the Ben E. Keith Company. She also works with local, national and international non-profit associations including IFPUG (International Functional Point Users Group), Heart of a Warrior Foundation, Women’s Business Council Southwest, Dallas Human Resources Management Association, (the Dallas SHRM organization) and NAWBO® (National Association of Women Business Owners®).

Marilyn is a past-president of the Dallas Forth Worth Chapter; and served on the NAWBO® National Board of Directors for five years in the capacity of Director, Vice President of Member Services and Chair of the Governance Committee. Also at the national level, she served as NAWBO®’s CIF (Chapters in Formation) Coordinator for three years, and was a member and content contributor to the NAWBO® Traveling Training Team. For her commitment and dedication to the success of NAWBO®, Marilyn Bushey was named NAWBO® National Member of the Year in 2004; and received the first NAWBO® Lifetime Award in 2009.